

Network Engineer - Wireless

Harmonia Federal Services is seeking full-time Wireless Network Engineers. This role is for an individual who can:

- * Design wireless network solutions both indoor and outdoor
- * Oversee installation personnel
- * Provide network testing to ensure a quality system meeting detailed performance requirements
- * Provide support as needed
- * Participate in client discussions regarding requirements
- * Maintain a high level of knowledge in network infrastructure and RF wireless technology
- * Analyze problems and resolves technical issues
- * Work in a team environment

Qualifications:

- * 4-year college degree (B.A. or B.S.), or equivalent combination of education and relevant experience
- * Proven experience with indoor and outdoor wireless networks including mesh and long-range point-to-point networks
- * Experience designing and installing wireless networks is required
- * Knowledge of routing and switching
- * Cisco, 3Com or Proxim wireless training required.

Location:

Position is based in our Blacksburg, VA office.

Travel:

- * Travel required. This is a hands-on position at customer sites across the US.

Salary:

Depending on experience.

Due to our government contract research work, US Citizenship and background checks are required for all positions. Ability to pass DoD SECRET clearance may be necessary.

EEO